In any organization, it is imperative that the right individuals are in place to ensure continuous, positive, and effective growth and operation. This is also true when slating Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated leadership. As Shelby County (TN) Alumnae Chapter continues to grow and evolve while maintaining its status as an awarding-winning chapter, oversight of the selection process of qualified and forward-thinking sorors into leadership is crucial. I have been afforded opportunities to serve SCTAC in various capacities both in the forefront and behind the scenes since transferring from Memphis Alumnae Chapter in 2010. A background in healthcare, I have been a licensed pharmacist for nearly 18 years with extensive pharmacy operations management, specialty pharmacy operations, and regulatory compliance as my primary areas of focus. I have project management, interdisciplinary leadership, and staff management experience including recruiting, interviewing, coaching, and developing employees. My vast experience in SCTAC committee involvement and in my professional background will prove invaluable to the incoming Nominating Committee Chair.
