Your Essay

It is with great honor that I am running for assistant corresponding secretary. Since becoming a part of this distinguished chapter, I have been fortunate to work together with some of the most intelligent and sharpest women within our sisterhood. I'm a self-motivated and progress driven professional. My background as a Mental Health Clinician and now currently a Behavioral Specialist for Memphis Shelby County Schools, both have allowed me to develop excellent communication and organizational skills. Throughout the course of my professional and Delta career, I have honed my reporting and writing abilities. I am an astute communicator capable of prioritizing and managing the chapter's deliverables. Becoming the newest assistant corresponding secretary would allow me to continue to do the work of Delta, all while expanding my leadership role and skills within our illustrious chapter. I will work with the corresponding secretary to ensure that the chapter's communications and correspondence are appropriately delivered for the 2023-2025 biennium. It is my desire to continue to serve Shelby County (TN) Chapter by employing my value of hard work, dedication, devotion, and leadership to carry the legacy of our chapter to the next stages of excellence.
